

Are you an enthusiastic professional looking to expand your board portfolio and become involved in your community?

Would it excite you to open opportunities for people with disabilities to live great lives?

Would you like to become part of a high quality, nationally recognised, award-winning organisation?

Mambourin welcomes expressions of interest from non-executive directors.

A demonstrated lived experience of disability will be highly regarded.

About us

Mambourin is a growing organisation with over 250 staff that work across a range of hubs in Melbourne's west. Our teams provide individualised support to more than 500 people living with a disability.

We have a wide range of service choices that include life skills development, social and community participation, employment pathways and general disability support – all of which help people to kick goals and get what they want out of life.

Our vision is for a world where all people can live a life they want.

Our purpose is to connect people to every opportunity and support them to get what they want out of life.

Our values are:

- Putting the person first – you are the reason why we are here
- Service excellence – you can count on us
- Making a difference – creating opportunities
- Our community – together we are one

About the role

Mambourin has an exciting opportunity for directors with the right mix of skills and attributes to join our board.

If you are an enthusiastic professional looking to become involved in your community while opening opportunities for people with disabilities to live great lives, this role is for you!

When appointing directors, the board considers:

- a) the skills, background, capability and experience of directors
- b) the current distribution of such skills, background, capacity and experience within the board and
- c) principles of diversity and inclusion, such as gender, cultural background, and lived experience of disability.

The successful applicant will have a combination of:

- strong governance skills,
- business/commercial acumen, and/or
- business development skills.

This is a great opportunity to join a dynamic company with $20M in revenue and grow your directorship portfolio. If you like a challenge, have passion for making a real difference in people's lives and want to be involved with a charity that makes a big impact, we'd love to hear from you.

Mambourin is an equal opportunity employer and promotes a workplace that actively seeks to include, welcome and value the unique contributions of all people including young and mature age candidates, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, and applicants from culturally diverse backgrounds.

People with lived experience of disability in particular are enthusiastically encouraged to apply.

If you would like to arrange a confidential discussion, please email our CEO, Danielle Carey-Munro, via ceo@mambourin.org to arrange a time or contact the board chair, Paul Larcher, by email at chair@mambourin.org.
