

We'll open up the world of work for you with our traineeships designed for students with learning difficulties or disability

Opportunities

We see the potential in everybody. As one of our trainees you'll have the opportunity to work on real work projects in real work teams, growing your confidence and experience.

Reputation

We have nearly fifty years' experience supporting people with disabilities in all aspects of life. We know how to equip you with the skills you need.

Pathways

We can create a pathway for you no matter what your goals may be. Whether you are wanting to learn new skills, find a job, or keep on learning, we'll get you there.

Our certificate courses are a fully supported pathway to employment or further study. The best part? You get paid as you go!

Traineeships FAQs

Do I get paid as a trainee?

Yes! When you begin your traineeship you become an employee with Mambourin.

This means you get paid for the work you do.

Are there exams?

Your traineeship is made up of practical learning and competency assessments. You will have some course work but our experienced trainers can support you to get it done.

How many days do I attend my traineeship?

You'll attend your traineeship two days per week:

- Practical work: one day a week in paid employment with us in a supportive team
- Coursework: one day a week with experienced trainers from the RTO (3821).

What is the cost of my traineeship?

Mambourin will meet the course fees for all eligible trainees. This means that you can undergo training at no cost provided you meet the criteria for a wage support.

To qualify you must:

- be over 16 and still enrolled in a school who will agree to sign a training plan
- have a diagnosed intellectual disability or be experiencing learning difficulties
- pass basic LLN assessment
- be able to provide proof of citizenship and identification (Medicare, birth certificate, concession card etc.)
- be eligible for Skills Victoria subsidy

We want to make sure we offer you traineeship opportunities that suit you, your lifestyle and your goals.
